

Ships Registered at Colchester 1786 to 1799.

William Harvey of Wivenhoe, aged 42, stated on oath that four firkins of butter were taken from Colchester to Rotterdam in April 1628 in the ketch Hawk of which he was the master. This seems to have been in relation to fraudulent activities on the part of Customs officials. National Archives, E 178/5301.

High Court of Admiralty: Prize Court: Registers of Declarations for Letters of Marque. AGAINST FRANCE. Commander: Daniel Harvey. Ship: Princess Mary. Burden: 80 tons. Crew: 24. Owners: Daniel Harvey of Wivenhoe, Essex, mariner. Lieutenant: Isaac Docker. Gunner: Martin Hopkins. Boatswain: John Whittrey. Carpenter: John Thomas. Surgeon: Theophilus Crank. Cook: Henry Phillips. Armament: 8 carriage and 6 swivel guns. Folio: 102. National Archives HCA 26/5/88 10-07-1756.

A Lowestoft punch bowl in the Victoria & Albert Museum painted with a ship and inscribed, "Success to the Frances Captain Osborn from Colchester." The ship in the painting is pierced for at least 14 guns, no Frances in the Royal Navy, and she appears to be flying a pennant which could be a letter of marque pennant, so she was probably a privateer. The bowl is dated 1765 to 1770.
